Product Description

Bambo Nature Wet Wipes are made of a polyester and viscose mix and are an excellent alternative to the traditional bath with water and soap. The wet wipes are for personal care and developed specially with babies' sensitive skin in mind, but can be used by all ages. The wet wipes can be applied all over the body, removing dirt and stains easily, and being disposable, the wipes are also very hygienic. Our Bambo Nature Wet Wipes clean and moisture efficiently and feel soft and pleasant on the skin.

The product is Vegan, dermatologically tested, recommended by Asthma Allergy Nordic, and Nordic Swan Ecolabel approved. The wipes must be thrown out in the waste paper bin after use. The product comes in different package sizes.

This product should only be used externally. Avoid contact with the eyes.
